Snippet Submission Guidelines

What is a snippet? It's the digital equivalent of finding a pound down the back of the sofa. A small thing that delights you: poems, memes, a brilliant product, a fascinating video of someone making a shoe, a recipe, an off-the-beaten-track hotel, the best toothpaste you've ever tried, a piece of art everyone should see, a life hack (anyone figured out how to fold a fitted sheet?), an album, a joke that made you belly laugh, a book that you'd buy for all your friends... we want to know all of it. You get the idea. If you find something, anything, that makes you think "huh! That's good" tell us.

Submission requirements:

- An image and/or link to your snippet
- A few lines describe why you like it.
- That's it.
- Submissions to submissions@motherofalllists.com
- Please put 'SNIPPET' in the subject line.
